

WEEKLY PARENT BULLETIN

Week 21 "B"

05 Feb 18 – 09 Feb 18

Theme:

Grace

Ephesians 2:8 – "For it is by grace you have been saved."

WEEKLY NOTICES & REMINDERS

Say hello to... Emmy and Rosie, our new long-tailed friends in the Science Department.

Emmy is grey and white. She is named after Emmy Noether, a female mathematician and scientist who was known for her contributions to abstract algebra and theoretical physics.

The brown and white one is called Rosie. She is named after Rosalind Franklin, a female chemist who was known for her contributions to understanding the molecular structure of DNA, viruses and graphite.

They are both 9 weeks old and already showing different characteristics, Emmy is curious and adventurous, whereas Rosie is timid and likes cuddles.

STAR OF THE WEEK NOMINATIONS

- ASHLEY CHECKLEY-REYES - For being an absolute model student who always shows an excellent attitude to her learning. This week she has also helped a new student to settle into their new surroundings and integrated her into her friendship group. Mr Lucas
- HARLEY STACEY - For showing incredible strength, integrity and maturity. He is also a great contributor to the student voice, and put in an excellent performance for the Year 9 football team in a 2-1 win against St Boniface. Mr Lucas
- MISHA WATSON - On Wednesday I took three Year 7 students to Plymouth University for a Maths Masterclass on Pascal's Triangle. Our starter was a maths word puzzle that Misha helped design whilst at the university on work experience! Fantastic! Mrs Sowden
